

*Executive recruiting is not a personnel business.
It's a personal one.*

OUR CLIENT

Our client is a lower middle market private equity firm, seeking an Associate for their lean investment team in Nashville, TN. The firm is focused on investing in healthcare services, healthcare IT, and outsourced healthcare businesses. The firm partners with founder-led and family-owned companies, supporting both platform investments and add-on acquisitions to drive long-term growth and value creation.

QUALIFICATIONS

- 2-4 years of experience in investment banking, private equity or private credit
- Bachelor's degree with strong academic credentials
- Strong accounting, valuation, and financial modeling skills
- Interest in healthcare investing and lower middle market businesses
- Excellent analytical, communication, and organizational abilities
- Ability to work effectively within a lean, entrepreneurial team environment

SENIOR PROFESSIONAL

Our client is seeking an Associate to join its investment team. This individual will play a key role in evaluating, executing, and managing investments across the healthcare sector while working closely with portfolio company management teams. The healthcare team consists of a team lead, 3 Vice Presidents, and 2 Associates.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Evaluate new investment opportunities
- Conduct industry and market research within healthcare services and healthcare technology
- Build and maintain financial models and valuation analyses
- Participate in management presentations and due diligence processes
- Prepare investment committee memoranda and transaction materials
- Assist with transaction structuring, financing, and execution
- Monitor portfolio company performance and key operating metrics
- Support strategic initiatives, add-on acquisitions, and board-level reporting
- Assist with portfolio company exits and realization activities
