Job #1967

ASSOCIATE

They are currently seeking an Associate to join their Austin team. The Associate will work in small deal teams (typically 2 to 3 members, with 1-2 senior deal team members) on all aspects of credit investing. The group has substantial capital to invest and has been quite active in recent years. They typically invest in middle-market companies across all industry sectors. The group can invest in a variety of transaction structures, including first and second lien, unitranche, mezzanine debt, and, on occasion, preferred equity.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work on a small deal team, on all aspects of credit investing
- Play a key role in the execution of transactions and management of portfolio investments, including due diligence, financial modeling, industry research, and preparation of investment memoranda
- Work closely with financial sponsors and management teams
- Manage transactions with minimal supervision
- Strive to make a positive impact by being a team player and an effective project manager
- Develop an understanding of the firm's credit philosophy and apply it to the evaluation and execution of investments
