It's a personal one.*

OUR CLIENT

Our client is a global alternative investment advisory and asset management firm with over $360 billion in assets under supervision. The platform invests across private equity, private credit, real assets, and hedge funds, with more than 170 dedicated investment professionals globally. The private equity team oversees approximately $115 billion and focuses on primary fund commitments, co-investments, and secondaries.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree with strong academic performance in finance, economics, business, or a related field
- 2–6 years of relevant experience in private equity secondaries investing (GP-led and/or LP-led transactions) or investment banking
- Understanding of the secondary investment lifecycle, including sourcing, diligence, valuation, structuring, and execution
- High level of initiative, intellectual curiosity, integrity, and commercial judgment

Job #1978

ASSOCIATE

The Associate will join the Private Equity investment team with a primary focus on GP-led secondary transactions, particularly continuation vehicles. This individual will work closely with senior investment professionals on the sourcing, evaluation, and execution of secondary opportunities while collaborating across the broader private equity platform, including the primaries and co-investment teams.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Support sourcing and evaluation of GP-led secondary transactions, mainly on the buy-side
- Conduct qualitative and quantitative due diligence (evaluation of GP alignment, asset quality, and transaction structure)
- Build and maintain detailed financial models, including valuation, cash flow projections, and scenario/downside analyses
- Collaborate with primary fund and co-investment teams to leverage GP relationships and evaluate underlying portfolio company fundamentals
- Prepare investment memorandums and supporting materials for presentation to the Investment Committee
- Monitor secondary and broader private equity market activity and GP-led transaction trends
